

This is an aerial map of a rural area in Latvia, likely near Gulbene. The map displays several land parcels outlined in blue. A prominent parcel in the center-left is labeled '5048002' and contains a red crosshair with the text 'Gulbene nov.' (Gulbene novads) overlaid. To its right, a smaller parcel is highlighted with a red border and labeled 'Ārīņupīte'. Further right, another parcel is labeled '5048001'. The map also shows a road network, including a yellow-highlighted road running vertically on the right side. Water bodies, including a large pond or lake on the right and a smaller one at the bottom, are visible. Several small buildings or structures are marked with red dots and labeled: 'Druvas' at the top, 'Melderi' at the bottom, and 'Ārīņupīte' near the bottom right. The terrain is a mix of green fields, forests, and bare earth.
